

Business flat speed.

Always the best available bandwidth for your mobile communications – every time.

With the new Business flat speed option, you can always surf the Internet within Switzerland with the highest possible bandwidth. Whether you need continuously high data volumes and must always rely on high speed or you only temporarily have increased data requirements, e.g. in emergency situations: With Business flat speed, you can continue browsing at the best available speed, even after you have reached your subscription limit.

You can easily activate or cancel the option via SMS:

- Activation: Text flat speed to the toll-free number 5522
- Cancellation: Text flat speed stop to the toll-free number 5522
- Cost: CHF 25.- per month

Alternatively, you can select and activate the option directly with the conclusion of your contract or you call your customer relation manager to activate it for you.

Employees at your company not allowed to carry out activations? No problem: we will gladly block the activation option for you. Simply contact your advisor.

Your benefits at a glance

- You can activate and cancel the option flexibly via SMS.
- Immediate discontinuation of the bandwidth restriction for your subscription after receipt of the SMS
- You don't pay for speed you don't need.
- Can be used with all current Sunrise mobile subscriptions for business customers and these data subscriptions: Take Away max, Business mobile evolution and Business mobile data

General terms and conditions:

- The Business flat speed option is contracted for an indefinite period and can be terminated anytime by the end of the month after use during the first full month.
- Business flat speed is charged at the full monthly rate, even if you activate the option only within the month.
- Sunrise does not guarantee any minimum bandwidth with regard to data traffic via the mobile network. The maximum transmission speeds listed below represent best-case performance and cannot be guaranteed. For mobile subscriptions compatible with the option, the maximum speed of the mobile Internet connection is 100 Mbit/s on 4G or up to 42 Mbit/s on 3G.
