

Sunrise for OBI.

Thanks to Sunrise, OBI Switzerland orders goods centrally in a secure and efficient process and thus increases productivity.

Customer

OBI entered the Swiss market in 1999 with the opening of the first OBI store in Basel together with the Migros Basel cooperative. Thanks to its powerful growth together with the Migros cooperatives in Aare, Basel, Eastern Switzerland, Ticino, Vaud and Zurich, OBI now employs over 600 employees in 10 OBI construction and DIY stores in Switzerland.

Requirements

Logistics and efficiency

Logistics and efficiency via data line and Internet connections for the central processing of all administration at the Swiss head office in Schaffhausen.

Data infrastructure

Secure and reliable data infrastructure at the best cost-benefit ratio for communication between the head office in Wermelskirchen, Germany, the Swiss head office in Schaffhausen and the 10 Swiss locations.

Landline and mobile telephony

Landline and mobile telephony for smooth communication via the landline network or via mobile phones between the locations and employees on the road.

Mobile work

Employees who are on the road in Switzerland or in Germany need a connection to the office at all times via phone and the Internet.

Qualified support

Dedicated technical support with a single point of contact. Everything from one source.

Solution

Sunrise IP VPN

OBI obtains redundant data lines from Sunrise that connect the entire branch network with the head office. Sunrise IP VPN provides a completely secure Internet line for business-critical and sensitive data from the OBI stores such as goods orders and cash systems.

Sunrise data lines

The inventory control system of the OBI stores runs on the secure Sunrise backbone.

ADSL connection

The managed ADSL connection to the Internet ensures secure and uninterrupted data traffic around the clock.

Mobile Working

Employees have access to company data even on the road with the mobile Internet solution Take Away.
