

Extra SIM surf & talk for business customers. Total mobility with one number.

No more hassle with swapping SIM cards: With the Sunrise extra SIM surf & talk, you can conveniently use up to five mobile devices with just one phone number.

If you receive SMS or MMS messages on your personal mobile phone, for example, but would like to make and receive calls on your business mobile phone and want to respond to e-mails from your laptop when you are on the go, Sunrise has the perfect solution for you. With the Sunrise extra SIM surf & talk, up to five different mobile devices, such as mobile phones, laptops or PDAs, can be used simultaneously with the same number. All you need to do is to put a Sunrise extra SIM surf & talk card in each mobile device you would like to operate using the same phone number. Then activate the individual device for the feature you would like to use, and you are instantly ready to communicate. Configure your devices based entirely on your personal needs and wants: You determine on which mobile device to receive calls and SMS and MMS messages, or from which device to send e-mails.

Sunrise extra SIM surf & talk is a practical option in several ways. Using the same phone number, you can do mobile surfing on your laptop and make a call on your mobile phone – at the same time. In addition, you receive just one bill for your main mobile number, with all services you have used on other mobile devices under the same business number. Naturally, this bill contains detailed information about the various services you used.

With Sunrise extra SIM surf & talk, just like any other SIM card, you can use all the services included in your subscription with any mobile device.

One number and one bill - worldwide

Sunrise extra SIM surf & talk is available for all postpaid products offered by Sunrise.
