

Business Mobile internet.

The mobile Internet while on the go - with the best data speed to meet every need.

Business Mobile internet from Sunrise is the perfect solution for everyone who travels a lot for business. Simply take it along and work anywhere. No matter where you happen to be: With Business Mobile internet, you have fast wireless access to the Internet and your company's network on the Sunrise mobile network. You can work online, send and retrieve e-mails, and access your internal documents any time without any problems.

What's more, you always have your costs under control with Sunrise because all our data subscriptions are unlimited and charged at a flat rate. Depending on your individual needs, you can simply decide for yourself if you need a subscription with 5G speeds up to 2 Gbit/s or if one of the three 4G versions is sufficient for you.

By the way, Sunrise is the very first Swiss provider to offer the super-fast 5G mobile network, which means it has tomorrow's mobile Internet in its portfolio today.

Key features

Business Mobile internet - the choice is yours:

- start: The economical choice for the occasional use of applications that do not need large bandwidth (e-mail, data transmission from devices, etc.)
- comfort: The practical choice for standard applications with medium bandwidth requirements (such as occasional surfing)
- unlimited: The flat-rate choice for frequent users in Switzerland with 1 GB of included roaming data for Europe, the US, and Canada.
- unlimited 5G: The 5G high-speed choice for mobile hotspots, cameras, or industrial applications with 1 GB of included roaming data for Europe, the US, and Canada.

International roaming is generally available up to a defined cost limit (default: CHF 300.00). If you want to change the cost limit or even block data roaming at standard rates, you can easily configure this yourself for the individual subscriptions in the Sunrise Cockpit (cockpit.sunrise.ch). If you prefer, however, we would be happy to configure these options on a company-level for you. For international business trips, you can also supplement your Business Mobile internet subscriptions with Business travel data roaming options. Write e-mails, use apps, and surf the Internet while benefiting from attractive terms anywhere in the world.

Your advantages at a glance

- Use the mobile Internet anywhere and any time
- Subscriptions that match your needs
- Be ahead of the curve with 5G speed
- Attractive roaming options for international business trips
