⁸ Combination discount for simultaneous use of mobile, Internet, landline and TV

Bundled mobile, Internet, landline and TV offers from the major Swiss telecommunications service providers with similar service, without consideration of temporary price reductions or promotions. A possible product combination for each service provider is used for the purpose of comparison. The prices, services and cost savings of each bundled offer can be varied according to the product combination. The comparison is not exhaustive. In April 2017, the Swisscom inOne offer will replace the Vivo/Natel offer. All service providers include the cable or landline network connection.
